Sunday – 18 July

1 Workshops on the Joint Actions 1630 – 1800

The workshops will follow the presentation on the development of the Joint Actions and the three common themes to be followed in the next triennium.

2 Workshop on WOSM Accounts and Finance 1800 – 1900

A chance to get inside the accounts of the region with support from the Treasurer, Vice-Chairman of the Regional Committee, Chairman of the Foundation, Director of Finance and the Regional Director.

Monday – 19 July

1 Workshops on World Issues – from 1430 to 1600

There will be a brief plenary introduction to each session in the Armstrong Room before participants will disperse to the venues for the workshops.

- Governance Review follow-up – facilitated by John May and other members of the World Scout Committee and supported by David Bull, Chairman of the GRTF.
- World Fees Task Force – facilitated by Luc Panissod, Secretary General and looking at possible proposals to be put to the next World Scout Conference.
- Strategy for Scouting – facilitated by Mario Diaz, Vice-Chairman of the World Scout Committee – looking at the development of the Strategy as we approach the next World Scout Conference.
- World Scout Youth Forum - facilitated by Milena Pecarski and Karin Ahlbäck, Youth Advisers to the World Scout Committee – promoting the World Scout Youth Forum, effective preparation of participants, elaboration of the programme and working methods.

Tuesday – 20 July

1 Initial Workshops on the Regional Scout Plan – from 0930 to 1030

The workshops will consider the plenary input on the development and development of the plan and look at the general direction proposed. This will be in small groups.

2 Sharing Good Practice - from 1100 - 1230

Taking examples from the Partnerships Fund for Development and Growth and other examples from the past triennium, we will be able to share the experiences – positive and negative – of some associations. There will be a short plenary presentation introducing the 6 topics and then 6 workshops which are repeated twice lasting 30 minutes each.

3 Workshops on implementing the Regional Scout Plan – from 1430 to 1600

These workshops will gather suggestions on the implementation of the Regional Scout Plan and using the five themes. This will be in small groups.
